

Chaperone Responsibility Agreement

Congratulations!

You have been asked to be a chaperone for your group at the Walt Disney World® Resort!
Being a chaperone is both an honor and a privilege.

Along with the privilege of being a chaperone come responsibilities.
Please read through the following list before you agree to be a chaperone for your group.

Chaperone Responsibilities

- Be helpful and courteous to other groups, your Director, the Dance the Magic staff and Disney cast members
- Keep a list of your dancers with you at all times
- Report to your Dance the Magic staff when your group is all together at your designated meet time
- You will travel on the chartered bus with your dancers to all rehearsals and performances
- Disney and Dance the Magic have very high standards. Please be sure your costumes, shoes, hair and make-up are in excellent condition and appropriate for a Disney audience.
- Take dancers to the restroom, if needed. Remind them to go before call times ☺
- Check to be sure no bra straps are showing. If straps are visible: CLEAR straps only
- Be sure your dancers are ready for their individual and group pictures at their designated time
- Stay with your dancers backstage before and after their performances until released to their parents
- You will not walk in the parade- you will be released into the park several minutes before step-off to enjoy your group coming down Main Street, U.S.A. along with the other Disney guests!
- After the parade, you will meet your Disney stage manager and be brought to the backstage area to help change your dancers into street clothes
- Be sure you have collected all your studios' belongings when you leave the dressing and rehearsal areas
- Please ask your dancers to clean up after themselves while backstage
- Report to your Dance the Magic staff when your group is changed and ready to be released
- Stay with your dancers until they have all been released to their parents
- Be enthusiastic and have a positive attitude
- Most of all...have fun and enjoy your Dance the Magic experience at Walt Disney World®!

I agree to follow the above chaperone guidelines at the Walt Disney World® Resort
